PRESIDENT VON KLEIN SMID DELIVERS POPULAR ADDRESS

Dr. Rufus Bernhard Von Klein Smid, president of the University of Southern California delivered a magnificent address before an enthusiastic audience at the dinner Monday evening, served by the Ladies' Aid Society of the First M. E. Church.

In the course of his address the president said: "Many people who claim to be Free Thinkers are free from the art of thinking." He further stated that no man had a "right to maintain his opinion unless his opinion was right." "I am not concerned over the illiteracy of the people of the United States, but I am vitally concerned that those who are educated should receive the right kind of training."

President Von Klein Smid was quite enthused over the progress made by the First Methodist church since its organization, and was also very much pleased with Torrance. An invitation extended by the pastor to Dr. Von Klein Smid to return was heartily endorsed by those present.

To the Ladies' Aid Society goes the credit for having served another excellent dinner at a very moderate price.

EASTER SERVICE

After the sermon and the rite of baptism all persons having declared their membership in the First M. E. church since the beginning of the church year will be formally received on Easter Sunday morning, and given their supreme commission for the ensuing evangelistic year. This promises to be a great service.

WATCH YOUR STEP!

"Watch Your Step," the new Goldwyn picture coming to the Torrance Theatre Sunday for one day only, is a light comedy with many thrilling situations. It is the work of Julien Josephson, who has written many of Charles Ray's successes. Cullen Landis, one of the youngest leading men on the screen, has the role of a city sport who through a series of accidents finds himself in the role of a tramp in a small town. Here he hides against the law, but finds that he cannot guard his heart. The result is inevitable. In the end justice overtakes the hero, and he discovers that he has been fleeing from an overwrought imagination.

One of the most thrilling automobile chases ever filmed has been photographed in "Watch Your Step." To see it will make you clutch your seat and hang on to the finish. The picture was directed by William Beaudine, with Patsy Ruth Miller in the leading feminine role.

A motion picture that will appeal to every age, from flapper to grandmother, is "Watch Your Step," the Julien Josephson photo-comedy produced by Goldwyn and featuring Cullen Landis, which comes to the Torrance Theatre on Sunday for one day. Youthful Patsy Ruth Miller is the leading woman, while other members of the cast are Bert Woodruff, Raymond Cannon, John Cossar, Henry Rattenbury, George Pierce, L. J. O'Connor, Cordelia Calahan and Alberta Lee. William Beaudine directed the picture.

The story is a romantic rapid-action comedy about young Elmer Slocum, who had served a jail sentence for speeding, and on his first day of liberty reached a new speed of 85 miles an hour taking a physician whose car had broken down to his patient. Elmer wrecks his car, knocks down a policeman whom he believes he has killed. He flees to a little western town and there falls in love with the daughter of the richest man in the village. Regarded with suspicion by the girl's father and her other suitors, Elmer has the upper hand of them until he is ordered held a prisoner by a detective employed by his father. However, Elmer was not a murderer, and the timely arrival of his father sets him free and he wins the girl.

LOVE FEAST

When Methodism first had its birth the Wesley Brothers began a Love Feast, which was held quarterly. For many years this custom prevailed, but has died out. It will be revived at 6:30 Sunday evening. The original plan was to issue tickets for the Love Feast. But the one to be held at the First M. E. church will be open to the public. Dismissal will take place in time so that anyone desiring to attend other churches may do so.
